The central part of the screen features a "Popular Events Near You" section with a map of San Francisco and a list of events: "Eminem Live in San Francisco" (October 29, 2020, 6:30 PM) and "Jenny Wilson" (October 29, 2020, 6:30 PM). Above this is a "Keep Tracks your business all in one place" section with a "Features" button and a small icon of a hand holding a clock and a bag.

On the right side, there is a "Choose the Perfect Plan for You" section comparing "Free Plan" ($0) and "Premium Plan" ($12.99/mo). The Free Plan includes "Get Started" and "Social Worker". The Premium Plan includes "Get Started", "Everything Included", "24/7 Help", "Same Day Payment Processing", "Email", "24/7 Customer Support", and "24/7 Customer Support".

Your Mind Matters

The Path to Mental Wellness

Your mental health is just as important as your physical health. It affects how you think, feel, and act. Taking care of your mental well-being helps you handle stress, make meaningful decisions, and foster healthy relationships.

A stylized illustration of a human head profile facing right. The head is filled with vibrant green and blue foliage, including leaves and branches, symbolizing mental health and growth. The background is white, and there is a small silhouette of a bird flying in the upper right corner.

Taking Care of Your Mental Health

- Self-Care Strategies
Symptoms like chronic sadness, fatigue, difficulty concentrating, or loss of interest in activities can be indicators of depression or anxiety. Don't ignore the signs—reach out for support.
- Social Connections
Mental health is a journey, and it's okay to take it one step at a time. Remember, you are not alone. There are people and resources available to help you thrive mentally and emotionally.
- Professional Help
Reaching out for help is a sign of strength, not weakness. Mental health challenges are common, and there are resources available to help you cope. Talking to a friend, family member, or mental health professional can make all the difference.

Emergency Help

- Helpline #1
1-800-662-4357
- Helpline #2
1-866-488-7386

Support Services:

- If you're struggling, you're not alone. There are many resources available to support you:
 - Therapists and Counselors: Professionals who can help guide you through difficult times.
 - Support Groups: Join others who are experiencing similar challenges and find a community of support.
 - Hotlines: In times of crisis, hotlines are available 24/7 for immediate support.
